

FLI Welcomes new Brazilian partner –Azevedo Sette Advogados!

Founded in 1967, Azevedo Sette Advogados is known and recognized for providing clients with personalized assistance and offering effective and customized legal solutions in a wide range of practices encompassed under Business Law (full service) in connection with client consulting and litigation needs, including legal and tax consulting, legal opinions, and legal sponsorship and representation in administrative and judicial proceedings. The firm's reputation is a product of more than four decades of experience in the delivery of services to domestic and multinational companies, financial institutions, investors, and investment and pension funds.

Azevedo Sette Advogados currently operates out of seven regional offices located in the cities of Belo Horizonte, Brasília, Goiânia, Rio de Janeiro, São Paulo, Vitória and Recife. They are also supported by an extensive network of corresponding firms in South America, North America, Europe and Asia. The firm has a market-leading team, formed by professionals with vast experience. With a long track-record of middle-market and large deals closed, Azevedo Sette has been one of the most active M&A firms in Brazil for the last 20 years and the leading force in driving public-private partnerships (PPP) in Brazil. Azevedo Sette's experience has made the firm one of the most widely recognized and qualified full-service law firm in Brazil.

The practice areas of Azevedo Sette Advogados include Mergers and Acquisitions, Administrative Law, Infrastructure, Public-Private Partnerships (PPP) and Project Finance, Civil Litigation and Arbitration, Tax Practice – Consulting, Planning and Litigation, Corporate, Insurance, among others.

Azevedo Sette Advogados and its team are constantly being as leaders in Brazil in multiples areas of law by international guides and league tables as Chambers Global, The Legal 500, Thomson Reuters M&A, Bloombergs and others.

Azevedo Sette
ADVOGADOS